CANADIAN ACADEMIC ENGLISH LANGUAGE ASSESSMENT ORAL LANGUAGE PRACTICE TEST

Please note: This is a practice sheet. Any reference to page numbers in the test booklet does not apply.

When you take the actual Oral Language Test, you will receive a Test Booklet as you enter the Language Lab. This is the only paper you may have on your desk while you take the test. The Lab Assistant will show you how to use the equipment. Be sure that you are comfortable with the controls and that you can hear the tape well. If you have any problems, the Lab Assistant will help you.

Sample Task 1

In this task you will talk about yourself. You may be asked to discuss either

a. what you want to study at university and why or

b. your experience learning English and studying English for academic purposes.

Note: You should prepare the answer to both questions. Listen carefully to which question you are asked on the test. Be sure to answer the question that you are asked.

Sample Task 2

When you take a university course you need to understand spoken instructions concerning assignments. Sometimes you will need to report this information to someone else. In this task you will listen to some recorded speech and follow the directions on the tape. You may write down any information here:

Sample Task 3

In this task you will be asked to give information about an academic document.

Academic Document:

Whenever you take a course at university, you will need to read some documents which inform you about the course. Below is a course outline.

Anthropology 32, 124 - Cultural Anthropology
 Spring 2000
 Monday 8:30 - 10:30 am; Prof: John Robertson
 Seminar 1 hour per week - to be assigned; Rm 314 Paterson Hall rm 408 Dunton Tower Office Hours: Mon, 10:30 - 11:30 am Tel: 788-2013

Course Description
 Anthropology is not a science of the exotic carried on by scholars in ivory towers but a discipline with a lot to tell the public. One of its contributions is its broadening, liberating role in a college education. This course will examine the development of this discipline as it now exists and look at its present day contributions to society as a whole.

Course texts
 James, A.B. Introduction to Anthropology. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston. 1999
 Kottak, C.P. Anthropology the Exploration of Human Diversity. New York: McGraw-Hill, Inc. 1991.

Evaluation
 You will prepare two class presentations (topics to be discussed) during your seminar times. These presentations will be worth 20% of your total grade. In addition you will be required to submit a paper of 10 - 12 pages typed (topic to be assigned) which will be worth 40% of your total grade. There will be a final exam which will be worth 40% of your grade.
 If you have any questions or problems, please contact me during office hours or call and leave a message and I will get back to you.
